We are delighted to present a show of recent work by Colin Kent RI. This show comprises works with familiar themes, with an emphasis on coastal landscape and Venetian subject matter.

Colin was born in London and studied painting and architecture at Walthamstow College of Art. He worked for a number of years as a qualified architect, before devoting his time solely to painting.

He is a master of mixed media painting combining ink, watercolour, gouache and glazes as well as collage to achieve the texture and delicate tonal values for which he is known.

'The more I use mixed media, the more I experiment. I choose a subject and then treat it in a modern way. I am always looking for different things to paint which present a challenge, hence the variety in my subject matter.....'

The sea and coastal locations have been a constant inspiration for Colin. In particular he loves the coastal and inland locations of East Anglia, but he has always had a 'soft spot' for Venice with its historic and romantic overtones and the show will feature a number of Venetian paintings.

We have been showing Colin's work for more than twenty years. He was elected a member of the RI in 1971 and has regularly exhibited in the UK and USA.
